FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

EURO-NOTES 2011
5th Joint European Notes Workshop
22 – 24 September 2011
Frankfurt am Main, Germany

From Clinical Introduction to established Therapeutic Option
Dear Colleagues,

The hype is over – reality and criticism is there. At the same time, first clinical steps have been performed and this quite safely. Most of those, who have invested time and energy and more…., are excited about the idea seeing the perspectives of this new option of minimal invasive surgical and endoscopic therapy. We will meet in Frankfurt to discuss our experience and future projects with medical staff, engineers, administrators and industry. We are looking forward to welcome you in Frankfurt 2011.

SAVE THESE DATES: 22 - 24 September 2011

Karl-Hermann Fuchs
Chairman

Paul Fockens
EURO-NOTES Foundation Chairman

EURO-NOTES 2011 is a combined activity of the European Association for Endoscopic Surgery (EAES) and the European Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ESGE).

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE:
Karl-Hermann Fuchs, Germany (Chairman)
Guido Costamagna (Italy) - Nicola di Lorenzo (Italy) - Abe Fingerhut (France) - P. Fockens (The Netherlands) - George Hanna (UK) - Antonio Lacy (Spain) - Alexander Meining (Germany) - Soren Meisner (Denmark) - Istvan Racz (Hungary) - Selman Uranues (Austria) - Enrique Vazquez-Sequeiros (Spain).
Dear Colleagues,

The hype is over – reality and criticism is there. At the same time, first clinical steps have been performed and this quite safely. Most of those, who have invested time and energy and more…., are excited about the idea seeing the perspectives of this new option of minimal invasive surgical and endoscopic therapy. We will meet in Frankfurt to discuss our experience and future projects with medical staff, engineers, administrators and industry. We are looking forward to welcome you in Frankfurt 2011.

SAVE THESE DATES: 22 - 24 September 2011

Karl-Hermann Fuchs
Chairman
Paul Fockens
EURO-NOTES Foundation Chairman

REPLY CARD
Please keep me informed on the latest information regarding EURO-NOTES 2011.

L. Name: ............................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

F. Name: ............................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

Title: ..............................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

Address: ...........................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

ZIP + City: .....................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

Country: ..........................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

Tel: .................................................................................................................................................................................................................................

Email: ...............................................................................................................................................................................................................................

EURO-NOTES 2011 SECRETARIAT: EAES Office • P.O. Box 335 • 5500 AH Veldhoven (NL)
FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT
EURO-NOTES 2011
5th Joint European Notes Workshop
22 – 24 September 2011
Frankfurt am Main, Germany

From Clinical Introduction to established Therapeutic Option

EURO-NOTES 2011 SECRETARIAT:
EAES Office
P.O. Box 335
5500 AH Veldhoven
The Netherlands
Ph: +31 40 2525288
Fax: +31 40 2523102
e-mail: info@eaes.eu
www.euro-notes.org